Department of Health Services

Inviting Resumes for:

DIRECTOR, OFFICE OF DIVERSION AND REENTRY

(UNCLASSIFIED)

ANNUAL SALARY: $228,029 - $354,632 (Range R19)

POSITION IS OPEN UNTIL FILLED

ABOUT DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH SERVICES

The Los Angeles County Department of Health Services (DHS) is the second largest municipal health system in the nation. DHS operates as an integrated health system, operating 26 health centers and four acute care hospitals, in addition to providing health care to youth in the juvenile justice system and inmates in the LA County jails. Across the network of DHS' directly operated clinical sites and through partnerships with community-based clinics, DHS cares for about 600,000 unique patients each year, employs over 23,000 staff, and has an annual operating budget of 6.3 billion.

Through academic affiliations with the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA), the University of Southern California (USC), and the Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Sciences (CDU), DHS hospitals are training sites for physicians completing their Graduate Medical Education in nearly every medical specialty and subspecialty. In addition, to its direct clinical services, DHS also runs the Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Agency and the County's 911 emergency response system, as well as Housing for Health and the Office of Diversion and Re-entry, each with a critical role in connecting vulnerable populations, including those released from correctional and institutional settings, to supportive housing.

POSITION OVERVIEW

This Director is unclassified (at-will) and reports directly to the Director of Community Programs in the Department of Health Services. Per County Ordinance, the position is responsible for oversight and coordination of all County-wide diversion of persons who have mental illness or substance abuse issues, and persons who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless upon discharge. The position has full responsibility for guiding the strategic, administrative, and operational activities of the Office of Diversion and Reentry (ODR). ODR is dedicated to preventing or reducing the incarceration and recidivism of youth and adults, with a focus on those suffering from mental illness and/or substance use disorders.

EXAMPLES OF DUTIES

- Oversees the planning, development, and implementation of jail diversion projects and programs designed to offer health, mental health, and law enforcement personnel countywide a means to redirect County residents with mental illness and/or substance use disorders away from the criminal justice systems to recovery-based community treatment and services and promotes an end to cycles of repeated incarceration. Helps implement the County's Care First-Jail Last Vision for people with unmet behavioral health needs and to support the Board's plan to close Men's Central Jail.
- Oversees and coordinates through subordinate programs managers the creation and enhancement of programs that seek to continually improve the physical and mental health recovery and reentry of justice-involved residents of the County.
- Leads development and/or creation of materials, reports, publications, and dashboards that help to communicate key program developments, progress and outcomes from ODR's programs and operations.
- Oversees the planning, implementation and expansion of ODR's Youth Diversion and Development program (YDD). Works in collaboration with the CEO and the Alternatives to Incarceration Initiative to implement the Boards plan for Youth Justice Reimagined.
- Works in collaboration with leaders across the Department of Health Services to increase integration between ODR programs, DHS' Correctional Health Services, and core non-correctional DHS delivery system to improve collaborative program development, care coordination and participant outcomes.

- Establishes and fosters robust and collaborative partnerships between the Office of Diversion and Reentry and: 1) the departments of Public Health, Mental Health, the District Attorney's Office, Public Defender, Alternate Public Defender, Probation, the Sheriff's Department, and the Alternatives To Incarceration Initiative; 2) other law enforcement agencies throughout the County; and 3) community-based partners, with the goal of implementing initiatives to increase diversion and reentry opportunities for justice-involved County residents, both adult and youth.
- Collaborates with the leadership of the Los Angeles Superior Court to expand opportunities for jail- and community-based diversion efforts and to further ODR's work assisting the adult reentry population and the juvenile population who are experiencing contact with the juvenile justice system.
- Supports the growth, sustainability, and integrity of ODR programs, including overseeing development efforts and maximizing revenue from County, State, Federal, and non-governmental sources.
- Oversees and coordinates the analysis of legislation and policies related to and impacting diversion and reentry efforts at the County, State, and Federal levels, and makes recommendations for the development and implementation of new policies designed to continually improve diversion and reentry efforts of the County of Los Angeles.

- Represents ODR and, as appropriate, the County's diversion & re-entry efforts and priorities, in County, State, and national forums, with elected officials, and with external media.
- Provides strategic guidance to the development of Information Technology systems, data integration efforts and databases required to document and manage diversion and reentry efforts. Ensures privacy and security of data of clients served in diversion and reentry programs.
- Monitors and tracks diversion and reentry services provided by ODR and its partners and evaluates value and cost-effectiveness of programs. Prepares reports at the request of the Board of Supervisors and Chief Executive Officer for the purpose of aiding in the planning and development of diversion and reentry programs. Ensures data is appropriately disseminated to various departments involved in diversion and reentry efforts, community stakeholders and partners, and the public.
